Patrick Finishes 12th at Mid-Ohio

LEXINGTON, Ohio (July 20, 2008) – Motorola driver Danica Patrick drove to a 12th place finish in Sunday's running of the Honda Indy 200.

Ryan Briscoe won his second race of the season. Helio Castroneves, Scott Dixon, Will Power and Oriol Servia rounded out the top five.

The IndyCar Series returns to action on Saturday, July 26, with the Rexall Edmonton Indy in Edmonton, Alberta, Canada. ESPN will provide live broadcast coverage of the event beginning at 5 p.m. (EDT). The race will also be heard on XM Satellite Radio, channel 145, the official home of the IndyCar Series.

Danica Patrick, #7 Motorola Dallara/Honda/Firestone:

"Kyle (Moyer) made a great call this afternoon. We thought the yellow was going to come out after Graham (Rahal) spun so Kyle said to pit. Unfortunately, the yellow did not come out, it stayed green. I had to conserve fuel the last stint of the race, but I was able to gain some positions and get some points."

RACE NOTES:

- Patrick is sixth in the IndyCar Series championship.
- Patrick gained eight positions during today's race.

Accident Collects Andretti at Mid-Ohio

LEXINGTON, Ohio (July 20, 2008) – Marco Andretti, driver of the #26 Blockbuster car, was collected in an accident on lap 42 and finished 25th at Sunday’s running of the Honda Indy 200.

Ryan Briscoe recorded his second victory of the season. He was joined on the podium by Helio Castroneves and Scott Dixon. Will Power and Oriol Servia finished fourth and fifth, respectively.

The IndyCar Series concludes a stretch of races on six-consecutive weekends with the Rexall Edmonton Indy on Saturday, July 26. ESPN will provide live coverage beginning at 5 p.m. (EDT). The race can also be heard on XM Satellite Radio, channel 145, the official home of the IndyCar Series.

Marco Andretti, #26 Blockbuster Dallara/Honda/Firestone:

“There was just a lot of smoke in front of me and I knew someone was spinning. I had no idea which direction they were going and unfortunately the Blockbuster car got caught up in it. Obviously I’m the one who put myself in that position to begin with because of my mistake earlier in the race. The track went loose and it kept picking up front grip so no matter how many turns of front wing we took out, we were still loose. It’s just a disappointment.”

RACE NOTES

- The race was started on rain tires because of a thunderstorm that went through the area prior to the race.
- Andretti made his first pit stop on lap four to put on slick tires as the track began to dry.
- The Blockbuster crew got Andretti back to the track in first place on his pit sequence and fourth overall.
- Following a pit stop on lap 27, Andretti returned to the track in 12th place and eighth on his sequence.
- Andretti spun on lap 32 and moved to the 20th position.
- He was collected in an accident on lap 42 with Dan Wheldon and Justin Wilson.

Kanaan Finishes Seventh in Team 7-Eleven Car at Honda Indy 200

LEXINGTON, Ohio (July 20, 2008) – Team 7-Eleven driver Tony Kanaan scored a seventh-place finish Sunday at the Honda Indy 200.

Ryan Briscoe won the race. He was followed across the line by Helio Castroneves and Scott Dixon. Will Power and Oriol Servia rounded out the top five.

The IndyCar Series makes its inaugural trip to the Rexall Edmonton Indy on Saturday, July 26. ESPN will provide live broadcast coverage of the event beginning at 5 p.m. (EDT). The race will also be heard on XM Satellite Radio, channel 145, the official home of the IndyCar Series.

Tony Kanaan, #11 Team 7-Eleven Dallara/Honda/Firestone:

“It was not a good race for this team. We need to regroup because we’re definitely not doing a good job right now. We’ve got to keep our heads and work through our issues to get better.”

RACE NOTES:

- Kanaan pitted on lap four to replace his rain tires with dry ones and exited in seventh place, but fourth on his pit sequence.
- Following his next pit stop on lap 27, Kanaan returned to the track in 13th place.
- He moved into the top 10 by the midway point of the 85-lap race.
- He was able to gain two additional positions over the final 30 laps of the race.
- Kanaan moved into third place in the IndyCar Series championship.

Mutoh Drives to Ninth-Place Finish in Honda Indy 200

LEXINGTON, Ohio (July 20, 2008) – Formula Dream driver Hideki Mutoh started 10th and drove to a ninth-place finish in Sunday's running of the Honda Indy 200 at Mid-Ohio Sports Car Course in Lexington, Ohio.

Sunday's result was Mutoh's seventh top-10 finish of the 2008 IndyCar Series season. Mutoh maintains a 31-point lead over Will Power in the Bombardier Learjet Rookie of the Year standings with five races to go.

Ryan Briscoe captured his second win of the year on Sunday and was followed by his teammate Helio Castroneves. Championship points leader Scott Dixon was third, Will Power was fourth and Oriol Servia rounded out the top five.

The IndyCar Series continues next weekend with the Rexall Edmonton Indy in Edmonton, Alberta, Canada. ESPN will provide live broadcast coverage of the event beginning at 5 p.m. (EDT) on Saturday. XM Satellite Radio subscribers can also listen to live coverage on XM channel 145.

Hideki Mutoh, #27 Formula Dream Dallara/Honda/Firestone:

"The Formula Dream car was good at the beginning of the race. In fact, I think we had one of the fastest cars in the first stint. But, the last stint we developed too much of an understeer condition and we just couldn't pass anyone. Our strategy for the race did not work out the way we needed. It was a tough day. I hope we can have a better result next week."

RACE NOTES

- The race began in wet conditions, the result of heavy rain and thunderstorms that passed through the area approximately one hour before the drop of the green flag.
- Mutoh started the event on rain tires and switched to slick Firestone Firehawks on lap 4 of 85.
